

Question from Nick Ireland to the Cabinet Member for Economy, Education, Learning and Skills in relation to Weymouth Schools

Question

Following the recent Ofsted inspections of Budmouth College and All Saints school from which both emerged as being rated 'inadequate' and in 'special measures', combined with the current rating of Atlantic Academy also as 'inadequate' and Wey Valley, after six years as an academy, still 'requiring improvement', will the Cabinet detail the specific measures that Dorset County Council, as the Local Education Authority, is taking at each school to address the drastic fall in standards and also what steps it is taking to rectify the borough wide failings in the funding for and provision of secondary school level education
