Public Questions for the County Council Meeting on 20 July 2017

Question from Cllr Andrew Kerby, North Dorset District Council to the Cabinet Member for Economy, Education, Skills and in relation to the Transfer of Youth Services to the Community in 2016.

Question

Is the County Council aware of the ongoing issues faced by groups following the transfer of youth services to the community in 2016?

If so, I look for assurance that lessons have been learned and that there is support for the community groups that have ongoing problems.

Public Statement for the County Council Meeting on 20 July 2017

Statement from Ms Sally Maslin and Mr Andreas Scheffler, as residents of Weymouth in relation to the Recovery Hub at 22 Abbotsbury Rd, Weymouth

To hand in a petition signed by over 650 local residents objecting to the proposal to open a drug and alcohol recovery facility to serve those affected by addiction, coming from across the whole of Dorset, at 22 Abbotsbury Rd Weymouth, and asking Dorset County Council to carefully reconsider this proposal.

To outline why we consider this location to be both inadequate and inappropriate and that the siting of this facility at this location is not fair on local residents, local businesses nor on its potential clients.
