1. Introduction

- 1.1 This Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Policy sets out Dorset Council's commitment to promoting equality of opportunity and recognising and celebrating the diversity that exists in our workforce and among our communities in Dorset.
- 1.2 Promoting equality of opportunity means creating an environment where people have the chance to achieve their potential, free from barriers, prejudice and discrimination.

2. Scope

- 2.1 This policy applies to all who represent Dorset Council in any capacity including elected members (councillors), employees, volunteers, agency workers and consultants.
- 2.2 The policy also applies to suppliers, sub-contractors and partners in our supply chain and to customers and residents.
- 2.3 We all have a right to be treated fairly and with dignity and respect. We are also responsible for ensuring that our own actions and behaviours are fair and that we respect the dignity of others.

3. Understanding equality, diversity and inclusion

- 3.1 Equality is not about 'treating everyone the same' but recognising that everyone is different, and that people's needs are met in different ways. We would define equality as essentially being about fairness and ensuring that we all have the best possible chance to succeed in life whatever our background or identity.
- 3.2 The right to fair treatment is underpinned by the Equality Act 2010. The Act entitles all of us to be treated fairly and not be subjected to discrimination on the basis of a protected characteristic¹.
- 3.3 Diversity is about understanding that everyone is unique, recognising, respecting and celebrating the added value that differences bring.
- 3.4 Inclusion is where difference is seen as a benefit and where perspectives and differences are shared, leading to better decisions. An inclusive working environment is one in which everyone feels valued, that their contribution matters, and they can perform to their full potential, regardless of their background, identity or circumstances. An inclusive workplace enables a diverse range of people to work together effectively.

4. The Legal Framework

- 4.1 The Equality Act 2010 sets out the different ways in which it is unlawful to treat someone, such as direct and indirect discrimination, discrimination by perception or association, harassment, victimisation and failing to make a reasonable adjustment for a person with a disability.

¹ See section 4.2 for definition of protected characteristic

4.2 The Equality Act also introduced the term 'protected characteristics' to refer to specific aspects of a person's identity these cannot be used as a reason to discriminate against. These are:

- age
- disability
- gender reassignment
- pregnancy and maternity
- marriage and civil partnership
- race
- religion or belief
- sex
- sexual orientation

It is important to note that carers are also protected through association to any of the above nine protected characteristics.

4.3 Everyone has a one or more protected characteristics, so the Act protects everyone against discrimination, harassment and victimisation.

4.4 The Equality Act 2010 also places specific responsibilities on public bodies. The Public Sector Equality Duty includes the General Duty which requires public bodies to:

- a) publish information to show compliance with the Public Sector Equality Duty
- b) set and publish equality objectives at least every four years.

4.5 In addition, Dorset Council is required to have due regard to the need to:

- a) eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act;
- b) advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not share it; and
- c) foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not share it.

4.6 The general duty applies to all the protected characteristics. However, for the protected characteristic of marriage and civil partnership it applies only in respect of the requirement to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination.

4.7 Having due regard means consciously considering the three aims of the equality duty in relation to our decision making and delivery of services and in our duties as an employer.

4.8 Dorset Council acknowledges and welcomes its legal duties. However, we also recognise that there are some additional characteristics that impact on people and their ability to access services and/or participate in public life and we consider these also when making decisions and refer to these as 'local characteristics'. These include:

- rural isolation
- socio-economic status
- single parents
- people with an armed forces background and their families
- gender identity (how someone describes their gender)
