

Finally we also believe that the public notice published in the Bridport News about this application fails the simple test of readability. We enclose a copy to support this point. Such an approach to public information falls below the standards required.

Yours sincerely