Councillor Questions for Cabinet 17 May 2022

Question 1 from Cllr Paul Kimber

I have had a complaint from a senior resident of Dorset regarding the accompanying Council letter advising householders of the new council tax , and as you know, we had another letter telling us that we would get a council tax rebate during April for £150 towards the cost of living crisis.

We were asked to contact the Dorset Council to find out when this sum would be paid into our bank accounts during April.

Question is when will this benefit be paid? I look forward to your advice.

Question 2 from Cllr Brian Heatley

At the Full Council meeting on 15 July 2021 the Chief Executive, taking account of the discussion by members, took the following minded to decision

With the acknowledgement of the staff workload and with grateful thanks to them, it is proposed that a review of the DC governance take place over this current term with a vote to be taken before the 2024 election.

Time is moving on. This will be a complex review. When will the Leader be in a position to set out proposals for terms of reference, an account of how and by whom the review will be carried out and a timetable?
