I have known Jamie for several years. He was owner and manager of The Wimborne Pig where I was a frequent customer. He also helped arrange events for the Mayor's charities. The Wimborne Pig. For example, hosted a Mayor's Lunch last year which attracted 40 supporters. I have always found Jamie to be a reliable, honest and upstanding individual who was a good restaurant manager – very good with people. He respected local residents and was a popular and successful businessman.

I wish Jamie well in his future enterprises.
