Dear Kathryn,

Thank you for sharing representations from residents in relation to our current application.

Just to confirm Town Council led or managed evening events in Pageant Gardens are usually limited to celebration or special events.

For example, during 2022, I believe only the Platinum Jubilee Celebrations in June and PACK Monday weekend in October took place during the evening in Pageant Gardens over two weekends.

The proposed licence will focus on both Town Council led or locally supported events mainly taking place during the daytime to include the monthly markets and performances by Sherborne Town Band etc. Arrangements are currently being made over a course of a weekend both daytime and evening in early May to coincide with the Kings Coronation celebrations. A PRIDE event is yet to be confirmed for a Saturday daytime and evening during June 2023. These events could potentially attract up to 1,000 people which are line with our public liability insurance for the site itself.

As you are aware, I am happy for alcohol element of the licence application to revert to 10pm.

I trust that my response will reassure residents of their concerns sent to the Licensing Team.

Kind regards,
