- Additional context. We have reviewed all comments and responses and noticed a trend with the answers provided in relation to this question. When asked do you agree with the proposal to reduce the capital limit to £6,000, 34.57% said no. Analysis of the responses confirmed that of the 84 responders who answered no, 20 answered no because they felt the capital limit should be even less than the proposal to lower the limit to £6,000. We would not recommend this approach but for fair representation we have therefore considered that they are in fact in agreement with at least the £6,000 limit being proposed. The effect on the above percentage response is that now 64 responders do not agree and 152 responders are in agreement meaning, Yes: 62.55%, No: 26.34% and Don't know: 11.11%.
