

ARTICLE 8 – COMMITTEES AND BOARDS

8.1 Committees/Boards

- (a) The Council has established the following Committees and Boards. Information relating to arrangements for dealing with certain functions by way of joint arrangements with other organisations can be found in Other Arrangements – Article 11 Part 1 of this Constitution.
- (b) In addition to its formal Committees and Boards, the Council has also created and/or assists in the operation of various statutory decision-making bodies and other non-statutory panels, partnerships, forums and boards. Information relating to such statutory decision-making bodies is retained by the Proper Officer.
- (c) The Terms of Reference of the Committees and Boards shall be read in conjunction with the functions of those bodies identified in Functions of the Council – Part 3(1) of this Constitution.

8.2 Sub-committees

- (a) Unless this Article expressly provides otherwise, any Committee or Board may arrange for the discharge of any of its functions powers by a Sub-Committee appointed by it.
- (b) A Sub-Committee created by a Committee or Board specified in this Article may not discharge any functions other than those conferred on it by that Committee or Board (as the case may be).
- (c) Unless this Article expressly provides otherwise, the Chair and Vice-Chair of a Sub-Committee created by a Committee or Board shall be appointed by the Sub-Committee unless the appointing Committee or Board expressly determines otherwise.
- (d) Unless this Article expressly provides otherwise, the appointing Committee shall normally determine the:
 - (i) terms of reference;
 - (ii) arrangements for the holding and frequency of meetings;
 - (iii) size of membership; and
 - (iv) quorum,of each of its Sub-Committees but in the absence of such determination such matters may be determined by the Sub-Committee itself provided that in no circumstance shall a quorum be less than three (3) Members.
- (e) The Proper Officer shall maintain a list of all Sub-Committees, including:
 - (i) membership;
 - (ii) terms of reference;

- (iii) any function; and
- (iv) any rule governing a Sub-Committee's conduct and proceedings not otherwise provided for elsewhere in this Constitution, created pursuant to this Article. That list shall form part of the Constitution.

8.3 Substitutes

- (a) Unless there is express provision to the contrary and subject to any limitation that may be identified, every Committee, Board and Sub-Committee detailed below in this Article shall have the right to have substitutes appointed to it for the purposes of any meeting.
- (b) In relation to Members, arrangements for any substitute shall normally be made:
 - (i) by the group leader of the Member for whom the substitution is being sought; or
 - (ii) if the group leader is unavailable / absent or it is not practical for the group leader to do so then by any person appointed as a deputy for that group leader,by giving notice to the Democratic Services Manager as soon as practicable before the meeting to which the substitution relates. In the event of advance notification not being provided/received from the Leader or Deputy Group Leader concerned then the substitute shall not be treated as a member of the Committee/Sub-Committee for the purposes of being able to speak or vote.
- (c) A substitute for a Member may only be from the same political group as the Member for whom the substitution is being made.
- (d) In the case of any appointment of a person to a Committee or Board who is not a Member then there shall be no power to appoint a substitute unless expressly provided for below or the law otherwise requires. A substitute for a non-Member shall be notified to the Democratic Services Manager as soon as practicable in advance of the sitting of the Committee or Board (as the case may be) and no later than 4pm on the working day before the meeting to which the substitution relates.

8.4 Co-optees

To the extent that any Committee, Sub-Committee or Board identified below has persons who are not Members forming part of it, then unless the provisions identify otherwise, or the law otherwise requires, a Committee may appoint its non-Members.

APPEALS COMMITTEE

8.5 Role/Terms of Reference and Membership

- (a) The Appeals Committee shall be primarily responsible for the determination of:
 - (i) any review and/or appeal that the Council is required to undertake (excluding any relating to an employee of the Council) including, for the avoidance of doubt, any appeal arising in connection with any educational or discretionary grant / relief function of the Council to the extent that such an appeal can be determined by a body including Members; and
 - (ii) various other matters requiring a determination of the Council, including
 - (A) an application for discharge from mental health guardianship;
 - (B) an application / potential revocation of any parking concession relating to a disabled person whether there is any suggestion of misuse;

Annex to Article 8

Part 1

Appointment and role of Co-opted Members of the Audit & Governance Committee

1. Code of Conduct and Declaration of Office

Co-opted members will be required to sign a Declaration of Acceptance of Office and are under the same obligations as Councillors to observe the Council's Constitution and Code of Conduct for Members. Training in all audit and governance related skills are provided for all members of the Committee.

2. Voting Rights

All ten Councillors shall have full voting rights. The two co-opted members shall have full voting rights whilst the committee is operating as an advisory committee (i.e. making recommendations rather than setting policy). There will be no voting rights where the Council has delegated decisions to the committee such as, for instance, Code of Conduct matters. Co-opted members will be treated equally to elected members in terms of access to support and information.

3. Missed Attendance at Meetings

In the event that a co-opted member misses two consecutive meetings or is absent from meetings of the Committee for more than 6 months (whichever period is greater) that member will cease to be a Committee Member, unless within the period of absence the Council gives approval for this absence.

4. Appointment of Co-opted Members

- (a) Each co-opted member, as far as it is achievable, will be appointed, following advertisement of the vacancy, on a 'fit for purpose basis' through assessment of each nominee's skills. The skills that candidates should be able to demonstrate would include analytical skills, effective communication, scrutiny and challenge, open minded-ness and capable of developing good teamwork and effective relationships with other members of the committee.
- (b) It is critical for the success of appointment to ensure that a diverse range of candidates apply for the role, ensuring that exemplary members are recruited providing a diversity of skills and experience.
- (c) The Appointments Panel will consist of 3 councillors, 1 should be the Chair of Audit & Governance Committee. The Panel will receive the appropriate human resources and administrative support. Recommendations for appointment should be made on merit and ability judged against a competency-based framework of criteria.

- (d) The appointment of co-opted members recommended by the Appointments Panel will require approval by the Full Council.

5. Length of Office

- a) A co-opted member's term of appointment shall be four years from the date of confirmation of appointment unless the member shall die, resign or be disqualified.
- b) The term of co-opted members should not exceed two-terms, to ensure that fresh ideas, perspectives, and experience are injected into the committee on a semi-regular basis.

6. Resignations

A co-opted member may resign his or her office at any time by notice in writing given to the Council's Democratic Services Manager.

7. Payments to Co-opted members

The Committee may pay to co-opted members expenses for travelling and subsistence allowances in accordance with the recommendations of the Independent Remuneration Panel (approved by Full Council)

Part 2Appointment and role of Co-opted Members of the Harbours Advisory Committee*1. Code of Conduct and Declaration of Office

Co-opted members will be required to sign a Declaration of Acceptance of Office and are under the same obligations as Councillors to observe the Council's Constitution and Code of Conduct for Members. Training in the Code of Conduct, Port Marine Safety Code and other harbour related skills are mandatory for all members of the Committee.

2. Voting Rights

All six councillors shall have full voting rights on all matters before the Committee. The four co-opted members shall have voting rights on all matters except for financial issues which in their case are confined within the budget delegated to the Committee. The chair of the Harbour Consultative Group will have no voting rights.

3. Missed Attendance at Meetings

In the event that a co-opted member misses two consecutive meetings or is absent from meetings of the Committee for more than 6 months (whichever period is greater) that member will cease to be a Committee Member, unless within the period of absence the Council gives approval for this absence.

- a) Each co-opted member, as far as it is achievable, will be appointed, following advertisement of the vacancy, on a 'fit for purpose basis' through assessment of each nominee's skills, knowledge, experience and commitment on these matters:
 - Management of harbours, shipping and other forms of transport;
 - Local industrial, commercial, business, financial or legal (especially maritime law) matters;
 - Management of marine leisure activities
 - Safety management;
 - Community issues;
 - Environmental matters;
 - Nautical experience including local area marine knowledge;
 - Any other skills and abilities considered from time to time by the Appointments Panel to be relevant to the discharge by the Board of its functions.
- b) The Appointments Panel will consist of 3 councillors, 2 of whom are other members of the Committee and the relevant Cabinet Member. The Panel will be supported by an appropriate technical advisor(s), normally the Harbour Master, having a thorough understanding of harbour/port governance issues.
- c) The Appointments Panel shall ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that the co-opted members appointed by them will, between them, have special knowledge, experience and ability in a broad and complementary range of matters relevant to the efficient, effective and economic discharge by the Committee of its functions. There may also be a need for co-opted members to fill any skills gap identified.

- d) The appointment of co-opted members recommended by the Appointments Panel will require approval by the Full Council.
- e) Councillors shall be appointed to the Committee by the Council at its Annual Meeting. Subsequent changes will be ratified by the Council and a Council member's term shall expire on the day prior to the Council's Annual Meeting. Council Members' appointments will be governed by the Council's Constitution.

4. Length of Office

- a) A co-opted member's term of appointment shall be three years from the date of confirmation of appointment unless the member shall die, resign or be disqualified. Appointments should ideally be staggered in order to maintain some continuity.
- b) A co-opted member may be appointed to a second but no further three year term without recourse to open competition, subject to the agreement of both the Chair and the member and the Cabinet Member for Place Commissioned Services assessment that the member has performed satisfactorily during the first term. All membership of the Committee will be subject to the ratification by the Council.
- c) Co-opted members appointed by one of the predecessor councils remaining as members of the Harbours Committee shall be entitled to serve for their remaining term, including any second three-year term to which they might be appointed.

5. Resignations

A co-opted member may resign his or her office at any time by notice in writing given to the Council's Democratic Services Manager.

6. Payments to Co-opted members

The Committee may pay to co-opted members expenses for travelling and subsistence allowances on the same basis as councillors.
