

Question from Mark Ellis

Dorset Police refuse to accept and address complaints against Dorset Police's own officers and staff. The OPCC does not accept direct complaints against Dorset Police's refusal to police, and complaints against behaviour of Dorset Police (Including the behaviour of Professional Standards team).

What actions has the Commissioner taken to investigate the whole complaint handling process of Dorset Police and hold the Chief Constable to account for training across the force.